Kuzina

Kuzina, was created in Thissio area of Athens, with the ultimate goal of approaching the Greek cuisine, by presenting some of its most popular local characteristics in the most subversive way. A concept of high aesthetic quality like Kuzina is perfectly coupled with and inspired by the most amazing view at Acropolis and Ifestos Temple.

Cape Sounion

The road leading to Cape Sounion is a wonderful drive along the scenic coastal road -known as the Riviera of Attica-, which affords a splendid view of the Saronic Gulf. The route passes through some of Athens most beautiful suburbs (Glyfada, Vouliagmeni, Alianthos) to Cape Sounion the most south point of the entire peninsula of Aemos (Balkans).

Cape Sounion known also as Cape Kolónes is a precipitous rocky headland rising 60m from the sea. On the highest point of the headland, are the columns of the ruined Temple of Poseidon with 6x13 exceptionally slender Doric columns, constructed of local marble with 16 flutings instead of the usual 20.
