The Programme

Our first stop is Rio de Janeiro. Its natural beauty, lively entertainment, relaxing rhythms, tropical beaches, and endless attractions draw people from all over the world. The city will be receiving the world's two biggest sporting events: the 2014 Soccer World Cup and the 2016 Olympics. The city's best accommodations for incentives are at the Copacabana Palace Hotel, run by Orient Express, which is known to provide the most personalized and exceptional service (<http://www.copacabanapalace.com.br>).

Then, we'll head to Iguazu Falls, where we'll experience a natural paradise, filled with energy, beauty, and inspiration. Its waterfalls are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the New 7 Wonders of the World. Come experience the wildlife, the adventure, the magic, and the awe of living Iguazu in style.

Price (based on group of 20 or more): € 3462 (switching to Sofitel Rio and Iguazu Grand, € 2815).

Inclusions:

- Accommodations at the Copacabana Palace (4 nights) and at the Hotel das Cataratas (2 nights), with breakfast
- roundtrip airfare Rio-Iguazu
- All activities, lunches, dinners, and transfers listed in the grid, in private, with 2 professional guides and 1 deluxe bus for every 40 people
